

FRESH @ Antwerp 28 October 2011

Program

Presentation max. 20 minutes – discussion 10 minutes

- 9.00-9.15 Welcome
- 9.15-10.15 Keynote lecture by Jan Luiten van Zanden (Utrecht University), Long run patterns of market efficiency and the genesis of a market economy. Markets around the Mediterranean from Nebuchadnezzar to Napoleon (580 BC and 1800AD)
- 10.15-10.45 Coffee
- 10.45-11.15 Ragnhild Hutchison, The Norwegian and Baltic timber trade to Britain 1780-1835 and its interconnections
- 11.15-11.45 Werner F.Y.Scheltjens, The spatial structure of the Dutch maritime sector, 1500-1800
- 11.45-12.15 Alan Fernihough, Human capital and the quantity-quality trade-off during the demographic transition: New evidence from Ireland
- 12.15-13.30 Lunch
- 13.30-14.00 Annelies De Bie, The paradox of the Antwerp rose: symbol of decline or token of craftsmanship?
- 14.30-15.00 Javier Arnaut, The sustainability of Spanish American colonial public finance, 1577-1810
- 15.00-15.30 Tony Moore, The discounting of government bonds in thirteenth- and fourteenth-century England
- 15.30-16.00 Coffee
- 16.00-16.30 Stephen Morgan, Nutrition and wellbeing in China's 18th Century: Preliminary results from the Qing criminal process records
- 16.30-17.00 Wouter Ryckbosch, Social structures and material cultures: a case study of Aalst (Southern Netherlands), 17th-18th centuries
- 17.00-17.30 Laura Salisbury, Selective migration, wages, and occupational mobility in nineteenth century America
- 17.30-18.00 Nina Boberg-Fazlic, Paul Sharp & Jacob Weisdorf, Nothing but a poor man with money? The changing fertility decisions of the rich before the English demographic transition
- 18.30 Dinner