

Copenhagen FRESH Meeting

Department of Economics, University of Copenhagen, Building 26, 2nd floor

PROGRAM

24 June 2010

- 09:00-09:05 Welcome by Paul Sharp and Jacob Weisdorf
- 09:05-09:45 Keynote speech by Jaime Reis, University of Lisbon and editor of the EREH:
Friend or Foe? Imported data bases as tools in Economic History research
- 09:45-10:00 Coffee break
- 10:00-11:00 Session 1 (Chair: Karl Gunnar Persson)
- Svante Prado: Internal migration and regional wages in Sweden, 1865-1945
Katharina Mühlhoff: Adm. Reform, Inst. Development and Indicators of Investment Risk in Meiji Japan
Montserrat Lopez Jerez: The Impact of Colonialism on Current Economic Performance
- 11:00-11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30-12:30 Session 2 (Chair: Jaime Reis)
- Christine Overgaard: Dutch cod fishing in the 1800s
Sylvia Sztern: The State, the Village Commune and the Orthodox Church
Jacob Weisdorf: The Lasting Damage to Mortality of Early-Life Exposure to Famine
- 12:30-13:30 Lunch on the 3rd floor
- 13:30-13:55 After lunch talk by Katarina Juselius, University of Copenhagen
Unit roots and the demand for cigarettes in Turkey: Pitfalls and possibilities
- 14:00-15:00 Session 3 (Chair: Paul Sharp)
- Jord Hanus: Welfare in the Low Countries reconsidered: the city of 's-Hertogenbosch
Kerstin Enflo: Regional productivity and income differentials in Sweden 1850-2008
Arto Kokkinen: Converging Economic Cycles? The case of Finland, Sweden and the EU15 after WWII
- 15:00-15:30 Coffee break
- 15:30-16:30 Session 4 (Chair: Jacob Weisdorf)
- Matthias Morys: What can we learn from balance-of-payment reconstruction? Austria-Hungary, 1880-1913
Kajsa Holmberg: The role of the company in occupational feminisation
Sofia Henriques: Portuguese lost Industrial Revolutions
- 18:00- Dinner at Restaurant Krebsgaarden.

NB! Each paper is allowed 20 minutes: up to 15 minutes for presentation and down to five minutes for discussion.

The meeting is generously sponsored by Department of Economics, University of Copenhagen.

Meeting organizers: Paul Sharp and Jacob Weisdorf, University of Copenhagen
Meeting Secretary: Nina Søggaard (e-mail: nina.soegaard@econ.ku.dk)